Valentine's Day Program

Love was in the air as Rotarians celebrated Valentine's Day last Thursday. The tables were beautifully decorated by Nicolette Harley-Barth and her daughter Tori Barron (see photos pg 2). Prez Tony recognized members by how long they had been married. Pete & Jolly Johnston, Neil & Gisela Olsen, Don & Gail Campbell have all been married over 50 years with Don & Vera Jacobs tops with 57 years. Congratulations!

The special program featured the Paso Robles High School choir (bottom) led by Choir Director Aimee Ware (top left). They performed a number of great songs including Disney's classic "When You Wish Upon a Star" and "It Had to Be You". The choir is another excellent example of the emphasis that PRSD Supervisor Chris Williams (right) and his team are putting on providing children with a well rounded education including exposure to the arts. This is reversing a trend that saw many arts programs curtailed or eliminated in past years due to budget cuts. Chris was joined by his Visual & Performing Arts (VAPA) Coordinator, Brent Moser (left).

It is very evident that getting more kids involved in the arts is not only a goal but a passion for the Paso Robles School District.
