The Object of Rotary

THE FOUR WAY TEST: OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY, AND DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all Concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and better Friendships?

The Debunking of Pat Sayne

Was it the Truth?

The organizers of this year's debunking used the theme of the old television show, To Tell the Truth, to carefully examine the life and peculiarities of our now past president, Pat Sayne. All attending club members seemed relieved that Pat is no longer able to levy fines with unprecedented zeal and impunity, and they obviously enjoyed the opportunity to really get at who is the real Pat Sayne!

As is customary, past president Tony Wallace led the planning of the night's festivities and Tony also served as the game show host. Assisting show host Tony was his able side kick (Paul Shannon) who read the official Pat Sayne bio and showed a special theme song from show sponsor, Viagra.

As in the original show, there are several masked participants who all claim to be the real Pat Sayne. Contestant #1 (Justin Davis) represented the Navy and Marine version of Pat. Contestant #2 (Jim Brescia) represented the school superintendent version of Pat. Contestant #3 (Marjorie Hamon) represented the leisure side of Pat as a fisherman. There was also a distinguished panel of Rotarians who asked the tough questions hoping to uncover the real Pat Sayne. The panel consisted of Rex Thornhill, Cynthia Anthony, Jennifer Sorenson, and Matt McClish. Their probing questions brought out several "truths" about Pat Sayne. We learned Pat was in military intelligence (really?). And that Pat believes in teaching sex education...but no homework. We also learned that fishermen like Pat not only lie about the size of the fish they catch, but the length of many other things. Finally, the panel asked how Pat's various experiences as a member of the military, school superintendent and fisherman prepared him for Rotary president. And we learned that fining your comrades, ringing the school bell, and learning patience while catching nothing all played a key role.

The entertaining evening ended with the "coronation" of our new president, "Queen" Gail Tannehill!

Humor Corner

A female social worker in a supermarket is following a grandfather and his badly behaved 3 year-old grandson. It's obvious to her that he has his hands full with the child screaming for sweets in the sweet aisle, biscuits in the biscuit aisle; and for fruit, cereal and pop in the other aisles. Meanwhile, Grandad is working his way around, saying in a controlled voice, "Easy, William, we won't be long . . . easy, boy." Another outburst, and she hears the granddad calmly say, "It's okay, William, just a few more minutes and we'll be out of here. Hang in there, boy." At the checkout, the little terror is throwing items out of the cart, and Grandad says, again in a controlled voice, "William, William, relax mate, don't get upset. We'll be home in 5 minutes; stay cool, William." Very impressed, the woman goes outside where the grandfather is loading his groceries and the boy into the car. She said to the elderly gentleman, "It's none of my business, but you were amazing in there. I don't know how you did it. That whole time, you kept your composure, and no matter how loud and disruptive he got, you just calmly kept saying things would be okay William is very lucky to have you as his grandpa." "Thank you madam," said the grandfather, "but I'm William...that little bastard's name is Steve."
